

David Tyldesley and Associates

HEALTH AND SAFETY POLICY STATEMENT

Section 2(3) Health and Safety at Work etc. Act 1974

David Tyldesley and Associates (DTA) is committed to maintaining and improving the health and safety of all employees and the people we work for and with, and our neighbours, where our activities may affect them. It is our intention to honour our duties to employees and to the public and to monitor compliance with them as often as necessary. Our employees also have duties and responsibilities. Our Health and Safety Manual sets out both the employer's and the employee's responsibilities in respect of this Practice.

Our statement of general policy is:

- to provide adequate control of the health and safety risks arising from our work activities;
- to consult with our employees on matters affecting their health and safety;
- to provide and maintain safe equipment;
- to ensure safe handling and use of substances;
- to provide information, instruction and supervision for employees;
- to ensure all employees are competent to do their tasks, and to give them adequate training;
- to prevent accidents and cases of work-related ill health;
- to maintain safe and healthy working conditions; and
- to review and revise this policy and our Health and Safety Manual as necessary at regular intervals.
